Magistrate Judge
Elizabeth A. Stafford
Case No. 2:21-cv-12169

RESPONSE TO CONCURANCE

RULE 7.1

Counsel called for a concurance on dismissing the above-named action. The Plaintiff declined to concur. The plaintiff responded that if he wanted to concur, he would never have filed in the first place. As the plaintiff reads the RULE, a formal response is required.

This appears to be a technicality which Defendants wish to exploit in order to garner an advantage.

It would be ludicrous to think that a Plaintiff would concur to dismiss this case with so much going for it, including a Motion for Default Judgement.
